OSBORNE SAMUEL

MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART

Edited by Ann Garrould
Hardback

Volume 1 journeys back to the earliest days of Moore's career, reproducing 1000 drawings from the period 1916-29. This period was an eventful one for Moore and covers his student days at Leeds College of Art and the Royal College of Art, London; his first public commission, the 'North Wind' relief on the London Transport Executive Building, St James's (1928); and his first one-man show at the Warren Gallery, London in 1928, where Jacob Epstein and Augustus John were among those to purchase his drawings.
