

OSBORNE SAMUEL

MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART

KERR EBY

No Man's Land – St. Mihiel Drive, 1919

Mezzotint & drypoint

21.4 x 32.8 cms

(8.41 x 12.89 in)

Signed lower right 'Kerr Eby imp'

Aside from the edition of 25, inscribed '2nd proof'

Ref: Giardina 32

Based on the successful counteroffensive by the Americans against the Germans at St. Mihiel Drive (a town in northeastern France) in September 1918, the area between the trenches of the opposing sides was known as 'No Man's Land'.