

OSBORNE SAMUEL

MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART

CYRIL POWER (1872-1951)

Houses of Parliament, c.1940

Pastel on paper
28 x 36.5 cms
(11.00 x 14.34 in)
P.O.A.

Power returned to his family in 1938 and lived in New Malden, Surrey close to Kingston Upon Thames. This pastel is part of a group of drawings he made in and around London during the war in the early 1940s. Other subjects included air raids seen from New Malden