

OSBORNE SAMUEL

MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART

ELISABETH FRINK (1930-1993)

Desert Quartet I, 1989
Bronze
130.8 x 124.5 x 87.6 cms
(51.40 x 48.93 in)

OSBORNE SAMUEL

MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART

Available

Bronze with brown patina.

Edition number 5/6

(Cast after the artist's death from the original plasters at Morris Singer, the foundry who cast this edition during the artist's life-time – supervised by the estate of the artist.)

Signed and numbered in the bronze

Reference: SC 52

Part of a series of 4. Some in the edition were of this patina and some were white, a reflection of a trip made by Frink to Tunisia where she admired the contrast of the white houses against the fertile landscape.